The clerk opened the meeting near the appointed time with a period of quiet worship. She then read the following quotation:

The challenge for Friends education is not simply that men and women and children be released from ignorance and incompetence—but that they be enabled to seize their freedom to seek the Truth and to discover that they will be empowered to act upon that Truth and to suffer for it, and so to grow and mature.

Thomas S. Brown

We are invited to Bob Winchell's and T.C. Rush's wedding at Bear Creek Meeting at 11:30, Saturday, November 27, 2010. A potluck meal will follow. Congratulations to their marriage.

Minute: We approved the minutes of our September meeting.

Minute: We approve the operating and capital budgets, excluding the $5000 for the farm well in the capital budget.

The Human Resources subcommittee will begin its evaluation of Christine in December using a format similar to what was used last year for the Interim Head. The results will be shared with the Committee at the January meeting.

Larry Marsh and Allan Winder will join Matt Brown in making a long-range assessment of the facilities. We thank Larry for his volunteering on this task.

Doug Michener, a former staff who currently resides in Colorado, has offered to do a video survey of the school's sewer system.

The ad hoc strategic planning committee of Phil, George, and Debbie has been asked to reconvene and address the issue of how to best integrate and represent the long range plan and strategic plan.

We appreciate the work of the sub-committees and the thoughtful reports from the staff.

The clerk closed the meeting with a period of quiet worship. We look forward to meeting again on January 22, 2011.
